Classification: Internal — Confidential | Issued By: People & Operations

1. Introduction and Remote-First Philosophy is a fully distributed, performance-driven digital agency operating across Asia-Pacific and Europe. Remote-first is a deliberate strategic choice to attract and retain specialists of the highest calibre. This policy establishes the shared operational framework within which a geographically distributed workforce collaborates effectively, maintains client trust, and delivers measurable outcomes.

2. Role Overview and Employment Details

operates on a fully remote basis across all positions. Employment type, seniority level, compensation range, reporting lines, and primary tools vary by role and are specified in each employee's individual employment contract. Geographic coverage spans Asia-Pacific and European markets. This policy applies universally to all full-time employees regardless of role or function.

3. Working Hours and Availability operates on an asynchronous-first model. Accountability is measured through outputs and client results, not hours on screen.

3.1 Mandatory Core Hours

Monday to Friday, 09:00 – 13:00 UTC. During this window all Employees must be online and available for synchronous communication.

3.2 Standard Weekly Hours & Overtime

Standard week is 40 hours, distributed flexibly Monday to Friday. Routine overtime is neither expected nor sanctioned. Temporary demand spikes are compensated via pre-approved Time Off in Lieu (TOIL), documented in writing. During the first 90 days, weekly time logs may be required.

3.3 Time Zone Obligations

Working time zone must be registered with People & Operations before commencement. Relocation affecting core-hours participation requires 14 calendar days' advance notice and operational approval. Unsociable-hours obligations are distributed equitably across the team.

4. Communication Standards and Protocols

4.1 Response Time Service Levels

Response times are measured from message delivery during declared working hours. Messages outside working hours carry no obligation until the next working day, except in genuine client emergencies.

4.2 Asynchronous Norms

All material decisions must be documented in writing via Slack, Notion, or email. Verbal-only agreements are not binding. Accurate Slack status indicators must be maintained at all times. Asynchronous video (Loom or equivalent) is preferred for complex walkthroughs where live discussion is not scheduled within 24 hours.

4.3 Client Communication

All external communications must be professional and accurate. Written client communications that materially alter scope, budget, or deliverables require Line Manager review prior to sending. Client enquiries must receive a substantive response within four (4) business hours. Client dissatisfaction or threats to terminate must be escalated within two (2) hours.

5. Performance Expectations and Deliverables

5.1 Core Accountabilities

End-to-End Delivery Ownership: design, implement, and continuously optimise work within the employee's area of responsibility.

Budget Stewardship of $30,000–$300,000+ per month. Unplanned overspend exceeding 5% must be disclosed within 24 hours.

Performance Reporting: structured weekly reports to each client by 17:00 local time every Monday, including KPI summary, variance analysis, narrative, and action plan.

Quality Assurance: maintain high standards for all deliverables, with regular review cycles and documented improvement plans.

Continuous Improvement: maintain an active experimentation and optimisation programme within assigned accounts or projects, with results formally recorded.

Platform Monitoring: assess algorithm updates and policy changes within five (5) business days.

Business Development Support: contribute to 1–2 pitches per month as directed.

Cross-Functional Collaboration: coordinate with SEO and Web Services teams on landing page performance, CRO, and attribution.

5.2 Key Performance Indicators

5.3 Quarterly Performance Reviews

Formal evaluations every 90 days by the Line Manager. Reviews assess KPI attainment, client satisfaction, deliverable quality, collaboration, and professional development. Outcomes inform salary progression, equity eligibility, and role advancement.

6. Tools, Technology, and Systems Access

6.1 Mandatory Platforms

All employees must be proficient in 's core collaboration stack from their first day: Slack (internal communication), Notion (documentation and SOPs), Loom (asynchronous video), and 1Password (credential management). Role-specific platforms and tools are defined in the individual employment contract and relevant onboarding documentation. Employees are responsible for maintaining proficiency with all tools assigned to their role.

6.2 Hardware and Connectivity

Employees must maintain a reliable internet connection of at least 25 Mbps download / 10 Mbps upload. A one-time Home Office Setup Stipend of $500 USD is disbursed upon successful completion of the probationary period. A professional, neutral video background is required for all client-facing calls.

6.3 Credential Management

All system and platform credentials are the exclusive property of and must be stored solely in the company-provisioned password manager (currently 1Password). Sharing any credential with any external party constitutes a serious breach and grounds for immediate termination. Any actual or suspected security incident must be reported to the designated IT contact within one (1) hour of discovery, regardless of the day or time.

7. Data Security and Confidentiality

7.1 Client Data Handling

All client data is strictly confidential and the property of the respective client. Data must be stored exclusively on -provisioned or approved cloud infrastructure. 9. Professional Development and Certification

Each Employee receives $2,500 USD per calendar year for approved professional development. Eligible expenditure includes certifications, courses, conferences, and professional literature. Individual items under $500 require no prior approval; amounts above this threshold require written approval from the Line Manager.

9.1 Mandatory Certifications

Where certifications are mandated by a role (as specified in the employment contract or onboarding documentation), they must be maintained in active, current status at all times. Any lapsed certification must be renewed within 30 calendar days of expiry. Failure to maintain required certification status will be recorded as a performance matter and raised at the next quarterly review.

9.2 Continuing Professional Development

Each team member is required to contribute at least one substantive industry insight to the relevant internal Slack knowledge channel per calendar month — this may take the form of an industry update, a project insight, or a synthesis of a relevant study. conducts bi-monthly internal knowledge-share sessions (60 minutes) which all employees are expected to attend unless a scheduling conflict has been pre-approved.

10. Professional Conduct and Ethical Standards

10.1 Code of Conduct

All employees are expected to uphold: Integrity (act honestly; do not misrepresent data or timelines), Respect (treat all colleagues and clients with professionalism), Accountability (take prompt ownership of errors and present remediation plans), and Conflict of Interest (employees may not perform work in their professional capacity for external parties — including competitors, freelance clients, or personal ventures — without written approval from the Agency Director).

10.2 External Representation and Social Media
